

Apprentice Reflection Xtreme Reading Overview Presentation

Directions: To be completed by the apprentice and shared with Mentor in the feedback session.

Questions	Comments
What went well? Why?	• Pacing and flexibility • Light bulb moments • Checking with teachers (SNAP) • Handled the teachers who were very overwhelmed extremely well. • Great check-ins
What would you do differently?	• I did not set Possible Selves up very well with the explanation and description portion. I need to slow down and really explain this before moving to the modeling phase.
What trends (positive/concerns) did your evaluation data reveal?	TO DO FOR BONNIE: Email Peony about XR Survey - let me know when she sends it so Malloreay can email teachers. Bonnie will email Malloreay.
What concerns were out of your control?	• Lack of planning time • Teachers thought it was a computer program they would monitor • Lack of access to novels
What will you do in the future to avoid these problems?	• Be upfront with districts about the necessary parameters of Xtreme Reading • Be involved in the planning the process
How can your mentor be of support to you?	Bonnie: Look at evaluation form and give any feedback Send Malloreay travel dates Bonnie observe Possible Selves
Malloreay To Do	• Bridging the gap must be observed
